

Visit Cleveland Botanical Garden

A paradise in the city awaits you at Cleveland Botanical Garden.

The Garden is located in University Circle, the heart of Cleveland's cultural district. Just a stone's throw from Little Italy and catty-corner to the Cleveland Museum of Art, Cleveland Botanical Garden boasts some of the finest public gardens in the Midwest. Each one is a gem with its own distinct personality.

The Garden is also home to the Eleanor Armstrong Smith Glasshouse, a unique conservatory that takes you on an exotic adventure to the lush rainforest of Costa Rica and the spiny desert of Madagascar.

Our ten-acre visitor center is open year-round and offers something different each time you visit. No matter what the season, beauty abounds, delighting your senses and refreshing your spirit.
